

Ski equipment rental

RENTER: SportUni. +358 40 669 1101.

RENTER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

- Renter is responsible for keeping the rented equipment in shape.
- Renter is not responsible of accidents caused by issues that can't be predicted with reasonable notice.

TENANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

- Tenant is responsible for handling the equipment with care and in a way that they don't get damaged or lost.

THE USE OF EQUIPMENT AND RENT

- Tenant gets the equipment for personal use. Rented equipment can't be handed out to another person.
- Rent is paid when renting the equipment and it is based on rent time.

MEASURES IN LOSS, DAMAGE AND THEFT OF EQUIPMENT

- Tenant is responsible for informing renter immediately if the equipment gets lost, damaged or destroyed.
- Renter must inform tenant about noted damage when equipment is returned or without delay as the damage is noted.
- Tenant must report an offence to the police if the equipment gets stolen.

TENANT'S LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES OR LOSS

- Tenant is responsible for paying the damages or loss of the equipment if he/she can't prove that equipment was taken care conscientiously. Costs are determined as follows:
 - Repair costs of damaged equipment with maintenance price list
 - Current value of irreparable or lost equipment
- Tenant is not responsible for compensating the normal wear of equipment.

RETURNING OF EQUIPMENT

- Equipment must be returned at latest when the rent time ends.
- Extension of rent time must be agreed with renter before the renting time ends.
- Renter can charge extra cost until the time of return if tenant returns the equipment late.

LIABILITY FOR PERSONAL INJURY

- Accident insurance cover is in responsible of tenant.
- Cover of personal injuries follow the current principles of compensations.